HIGH WEST SPIRIT GARDEN AND LIVE MUSIC LINEUP
ANNOUNCED FOR SAVOR THE SUMMIT
Venue features food, drink and tunes on Lower Main Street

PARK CITY, UTAH (June 4, 2018) — The Park City Area Restaurant Association's (PCARA) annual Savor the Summit presented by Sysco will feature the High West Spirit Garden with live music on Saturday, June 16, in addition to the event's signature "Grande Table."

"The High West Spirit Garden and live music acts are great additions to Savor the Summit's Grande Table experience," said PCARA executive director Ginger Ries. "It's a way for guests to enjoy delicious cuisine, drinks and entertainment without a reservation to a nearly sold-out event."

The High West Spirit Garden, located at the bottom of lower Main Street, returns this year to offer delectable food and drink, along with jazzy soul and punk rock vibes in a social atmosphere. Bar service will be from 5:00 p.m. – 9:45 p.m., no ticket required. Food service will be from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. with the purchase of a VIP ticket. Come enjoy our musical lineup as follows:

6:00 - 7:30 p.m. Joshy Soul & The Cool

8:00 - 10:00 p.m. The Number Ones

VIP tickets are available for $50 which include three food selections provided by The Brass Tag at Deer Valley, and two of the following beverage options: High West spirits, Red Rock beer, assorted wine and Smart Water. To secure VIP tickets, call 435-615-2410. The Spirit

Garden is open to the public to those 21 years of age and above, and no reservations are necessary.

Event goers are encouraged to park at Treasure Mountain Junior High School (2530 Kearns Blvd, Park City, UT 84060) and ride the free transit system to Main Street. Paid parking garages are located on Swede Alley and at the Marriott Summit Watch, but both will fill-up fast.
